

THE 2008 STEWARDSHIP CONFERENCE
APRIL 11 – 12, 2008 KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI

Keith Mundy

Workshop:

❖ Stories to Tell and Gifts to Share

Keith A. Mundy is a lay person who lives in Overland Park, KS. For almost ten years he has served congregations through the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Currently, Keith works most closely with congregations in Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky and Michigan. In the past he has served congregations from California to North Carolina to New York to North Dakota. As Assistant Director for Stewardship for the ELCA, Keith is a team leader with a focus on stewardship education, leadership development and growing mission support. His gifts for ministry include visioning, planning, organizing and teaching.

On his faith journey, Keith has served on the church council in three different congregations and led committees including evangelism, finance and stewardship. Some of his most joyful experiences have been leading several building appeals. Prior to his working with the ELCA, Keith worked in business for twenty years as a marketing manager and business developer in the manufacturing, construction and retail sectors. He has also taught marketing at the college level.

Keith, his wife Joyce and their two adult children are members of Atonement Lutheran Church in Overland Park, KS. His personal interests include gardening, baseball and basketball. And, he does like to travel.
