

THE 2008 STEWARDSHIP CONFERENCE
APRIL 11 – 12, 2008 KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI

Stewardship in the Lives of Young Adults

Workshop Description:

Making the Connection with Young Adults

"If only we had some more young people" is a common congregational refrain. Do you really mean it? If your strategy has been to talk about, wonder about, and wrinkle your brow about the young adults that you see everywhere but church, don't come expecting a list of "5 easy things you can do to get young adults to give." Young adults come in all shapes and sizes, well-equipped with an acute sensitivity to being stereotyped and targeted for marketing. We will talk about how the world in which they have grown up has shaped their perspectives, the delights and demands for authentic relationships with them, their insistence on integrity in their mentors, and the loyalty they have to God and God's creation.
